Continuation of 2. NOTE: Propsed amendment after final excludes cancer cells and explicit, excites coronary artery, retina, and hamagioma. However, such specific subject matter was not in the examined claims before, and this application has been rejected twice based on the rationale that the prior art teaches activity against cancer cells. Entry of applicant's proposed amendment would necessitate withdrawal of the rejection of record, further consideration, new search and new prior art, if any. At this after final stage of prosecution, the proposed amendment is deemed untimely.
